PORTAGE HIGH SCHOOL PORTAGE, MICHIGAN

My nose itches.

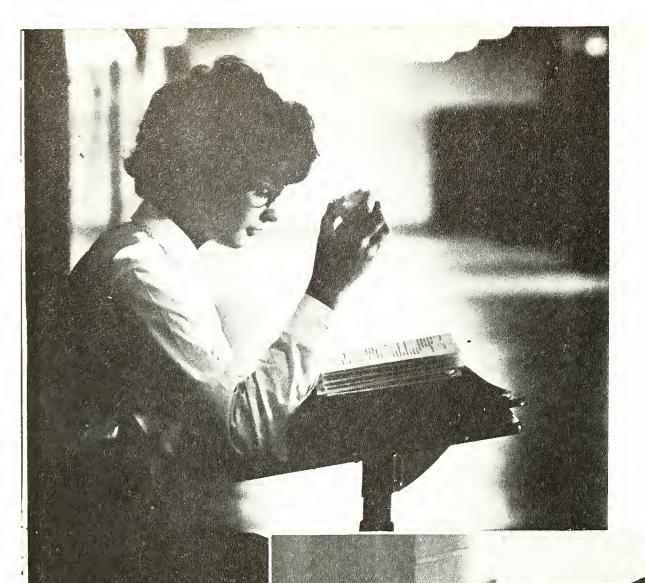

And it's only Manday . . .

STUDENT LIFE

She's on her way up!

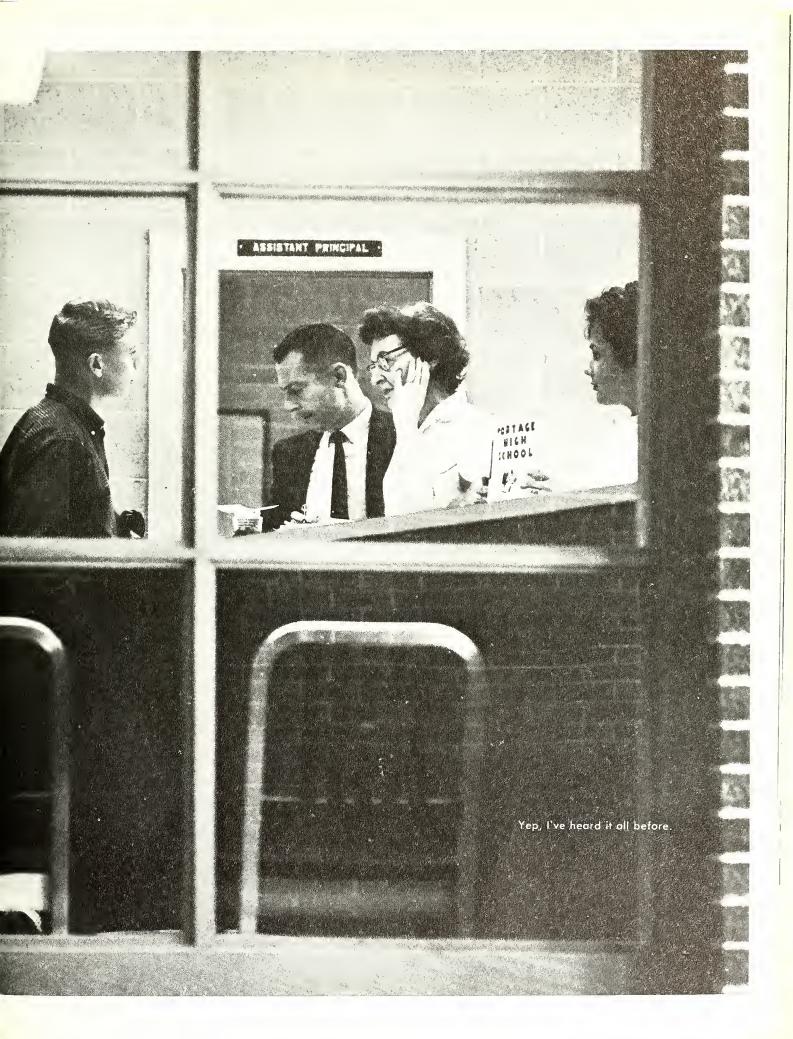

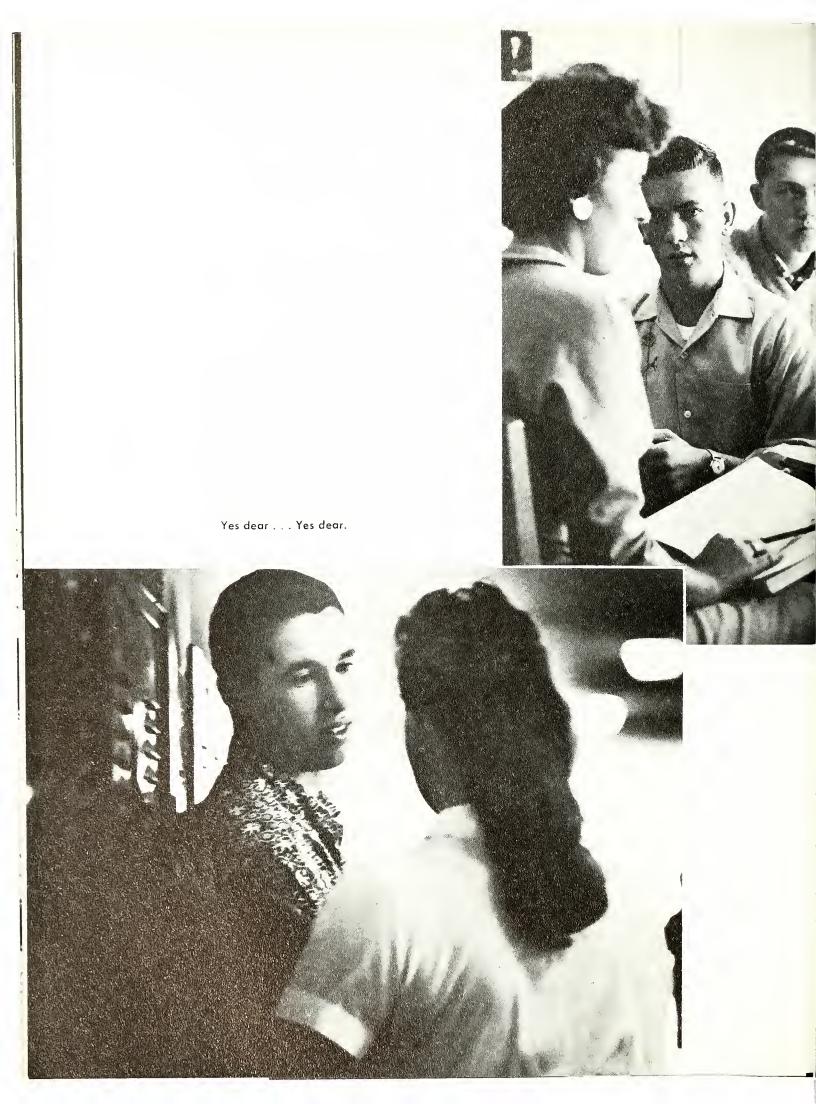

An apple a day.

Act innocent. Here he cames.

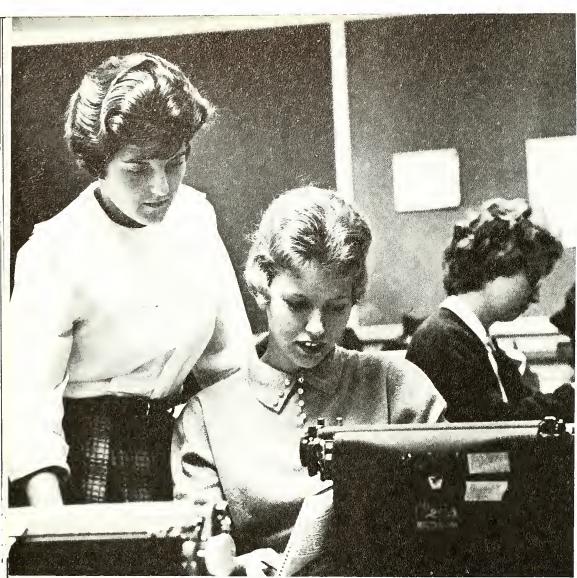

Oh-ah! Lost that place again.

Customers on strike!?!

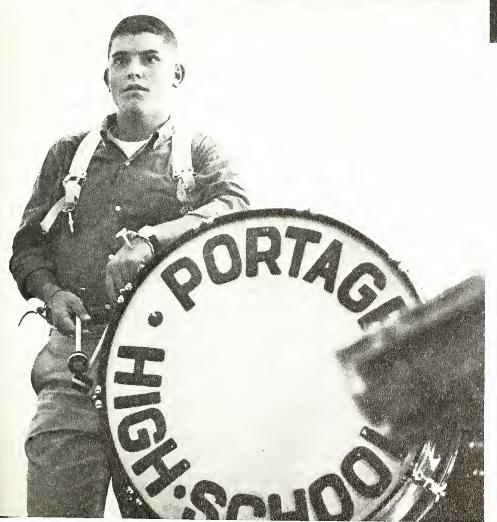

Now this little doohickey here . . .

There we were — full count with a man on third.

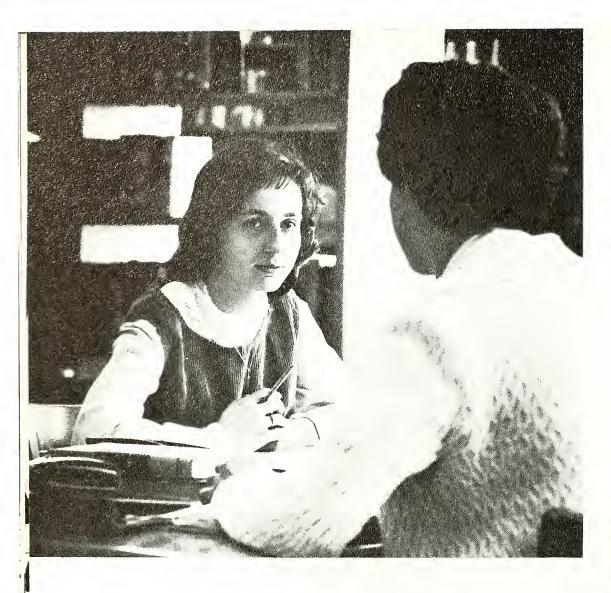

Two and two is five?

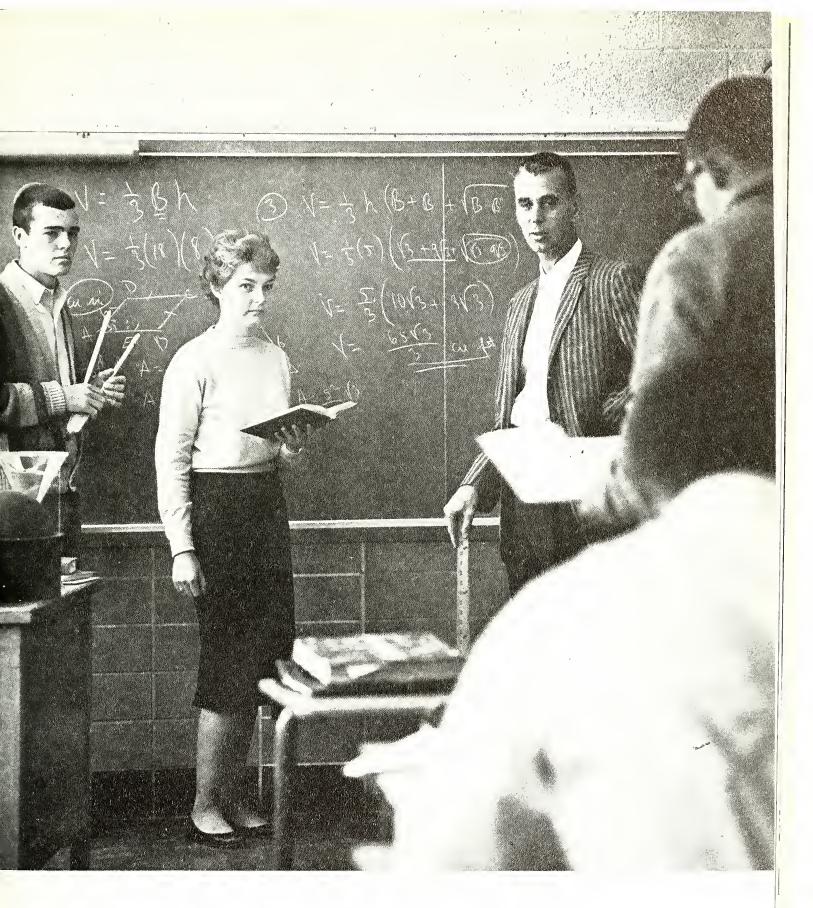

Ready for kick-off!

Oh, Really!

Oh-oh! The bell is ringing!

You knaw — like square.

Mr. ABE DE BOER, Treasurer

Dr. ROBERT VANDER ROEST, President

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. EDWARD BELSKY, Trustee

Dr. ROBERT GREKIN, Trustee

As our school system keeps pace with the rapid expansion of our community the responsibility of our school board is greatly increased. They have met these increased demands, and have continually tried to improve the efficiency of our school, its personnel and curriculum.

Dr. ROBERT SMITH, Trustee

Mr. GUY BENSON, Trustee

Mr. ROBERT THOMSON, Trustee

PRINCIPAL

Our high school is smoothly and efficiently run because of the hard work and devotion of our principal, Mr. Martin. In his quiet way he makes it possible for us to ochieve a high degree of scholastic efficiency. Our sincere thanks to you, Mr. Martin.

SUPERINTENDENT

Under the guidance of Mr. Wilkinson the Portage Schaol System has earned for itself a place of prominence in our community and state. He is truly a friend to all of us and takes a sincere interest in the student and student's activities.

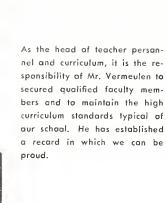

The important job of assistant to the principal is more than adequately performed by Mr. Pellowe. With the rapid grawth of aur school, the duties and responsibilities of this jab have increased and Mr. Pellowe has kept these things in order.

MR. EVANS

As dean of students, Mr. Evans is responsible far school harmony, and is always trying to keep the students happy and contented with their place in the school and its activities.

MR. VERMEULEN

ADMINISTRATION

MR. BEKKEN

Mr. Bekken, as head of transpartation, has dane a cammendable jab in supervising the transportation carp of our school system. In addition to these duties he is in charge of the custadians, who keep our school clean.

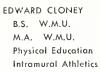

MR. CANDOLI

The position of business manager is vital to the success of our school system. Mr. Candoli has done an excellent job in this area. It is his jab to see that the books balance and that the funds of the school are budgeted wisely.

YEA

S E N O R S

A responsible and serious student, a fun-loving and loyal friend, an avid and skilled musician — Dave Sanford was all of these. The untimely passing of our classmate has left a void in each of our lives. As a symbol of our feeling for Dave, his picture opens the section of those he knew and laved so well.

His classmates

First Row (I ta r): Mr. Pellowe, Rob Staffen, Nancy Sliter, Morty Wellman, Tom Yonderberg, Sue Lotvo, Norb Kurtz.

Mony students who are not planning to go on to college find it quite an advantage in being able to participate in the cooperative training program. This provides the students with proper training and experience for deciding on future work.

The members of the Bible Club and Miss Smith, advisor, have had another interesting year of programs and projects. The programs include speakers, movies, and discussians. One of the projects they participated in is supporting a Korean child. The students who participate in this interdenominational club are interested in Christian fellowship.

DEBATE

This year the members of the debate team were advised by Miss Vanderberg. The members gained valuable debating experience by taking the pro and con sides of different subjects. This is done between the members of the Portage team and other schools also.

FORENSICS

Front: Rob Staffen, Miss Vondenberg, Judy Matrau, Helen Lovett Back: Denise Magermon, Jan Allen This year Miss Vanderberg coached and instructed the members of the forensics team. The students have a choice of work in five areas in which they speak. These are: dramatic reading, humorous reading, declaration, original oratory, or extemporaneous speaking. The members give speeches between themselves and compete with students from other schools.

PEP CLUB

The major goal of the pep club is to create a better school spirit among the student body. Some of the things the club does to inspire the spirit are to sponsor the busses to away games and give the pep jug to the loudest cheering class. The club is also fortunate to have the school mascot, Winnie, as one of the members.

MONITORS

The student monitars give up their study hall to sit in the halls to check the people who are out of class. They also have charge of the honor study halls. Mr. Evans as the advisar feels the students take over more responsibility if they are given the chance.

First Row (I to r): Sharan Walker, Jaan Hanger, Sandy Bingham, Gayle Adams, Hart Bichler, Fran Kribs, Betsy Welch, Sharon Bulsan, Marj Haelzle.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the student governing body of the school. It is made up of two committees, the Welfare Committee and the Social Committee, five officers, a foreign student, and 34 representatives. It is the responsibility of the council to sponsor assemblies, scholarships, cheerleaders, dances and clubs. Also it puts on the Christmas Formal, the Variety Show, and a special project each year. The odvisor for the Student Council is Mr. Evans.

INTERSCHOOL COUNCIL

The Interschool Council is a council made up of representatives from some of the schools in Kalamazoo County. They meet once a month to plan activities such as College Night and the Christmas Show. Mr. Evans is the advisor of this committee.

YEARBOOK

STAFF

Each year the Yeorbook Stoff does its best to make improvements over the previous yearbooks. This year we have added the student life section to help bring out all the things going on in our school. This also adds attractiveness to the Annual and promotes interest in our school.

The staff of the 1961-1962 school year consists of thirteen members plus the advisor, Mr. Sterner, These members have worked very hard on all phoses, including, writing copy, arranging pages, setting up the taking of pictures, and advertising. We hope that our efforts will be appreciated by you.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The students who make up the National Honor Society are the ones who have shown outstanding qualities of scholarship, leadership, character and service. The candlelight induction ceremony marks the beginning of a busy role for the National Honor Society members. Mrs. Schoenhals, as advisor, supervises this organization's mony activities which include providing a scholarship for a worthy senior.

The Business Club is for those who are taking business courses and who want to learn about business occupations. The club visited the new Upjohn office building, put on a skit and had guest speakers who gave them interesting information about working in the business field. Miss Frakes is the advisor.

The initials M. U. N. A. stand for Model United Nations Association. The students involved in this club do research on a country to get general knowledge about the country and its stand on world issues. As a climax to this study, the members attend a model United Nations meeting at Hillsdale College, where they serve as delegates from their assigned country, Venezuela, and take stand in debates and vating. The goal of this club is to better understand the workings of the United Nations and the reasons behind the stand taken by the country they represent. Miss Montonye advises the club.

Mr. Faustman has helped the Thespians through their second successful year. The Thespians are responsible for the dromatic productions at Portage. Ten points are required for a person to become a member of the club. These points are earned by work at the plays and each point involves much effort. The people working toward their ten points by assisting the Thespians on dromatic productions are called Apprentice Thespians and have a club of their own. Special thanks should go to the members of these clubs for the outstanding job they have done this year.

The fall dromatic offering of "Song of Bernadette" by Jean and Walter Kerr was a great success. The play was the stary of a French peasant girl and a vision revealed to her. In addition to the two performances here at Portage, the play was presented at Nazareth where it was also very well received. Mr. Faustman did a fine jab as director. All persons connected with the play, both the actors and back—stage workers, deserve much credit for making this play one to be remembered.

CANDY NIXON

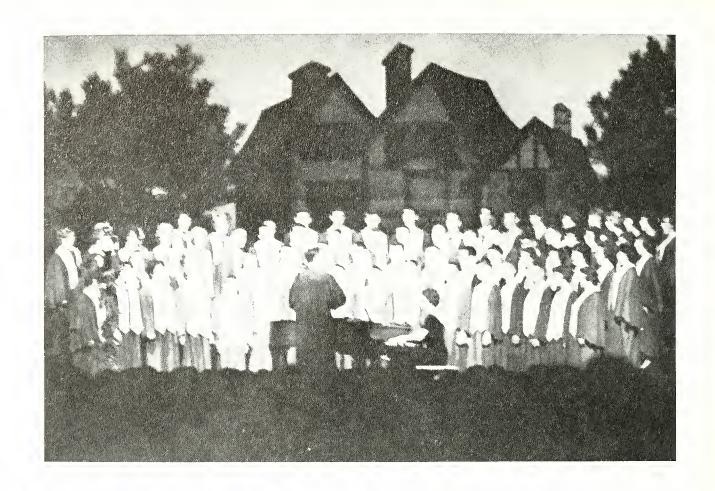

The small masks given as favors at this year's holiday formal will help to bring back memories of a most enjoyable evening. On a cold wintery night the couples traveled to a dimly-lit gym where a green dragon high-lighted the decorations and served to carry out the theme of "Mystical Mischief." The couples danced to the music of Bobby Davidson's orchestra and drank punch served on the balcony before braving the cold again.

BASKETBALL

The first half of the basketball season was a promising one for the Mustang cagers. The boys fought their way to a 5-2 record only to be stopped cold with a six game losing streak. Central, Niles, U. High, Norrix, Dowagiac, and St. Joe fell prey to the Portage team which finally ended with a 7-10 record. Although the starting squod was composed mostly of seniors, many fine players will return to next yeor's team.

"There's a girl I'd like to know"

"She has so much poise and confidence—I'll bet she works for the telephone company. Those girls are so attractive and have such friendly, pleasant manners."

They're talking about Lucy, who started working for Michigan Bell right out of high school. She was trained by friendly, understanding supervisors and today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Lucy was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled midmorning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in comfortable lounge rooms, and by the opportunities for advancement.

Isn't that kind of job worth going after? Then why not get in touch with us—perhaps there's a telephone job for you. We'll be happy to talk with you about the interesting work at Michigan Bell.

The South came to life again as the "Showboat Serenade," Portage's Junior-Senior Prom, came into being. The main decoration was the huge showboat which featured a rotating paddlewheel. Presented by the Junior class to the Senior class, the prom was held on May 26 at the North Junior High School cafeteria where couples danced to the music of Don Neal's orchestra.

OUR AMERICAN COUSIN

Our American Cousin, written by Tam Taylar, is the story of a straightforward American and his encounter with his very praper English relatives. This play was being presented in Fard's Theater when Lincoln was shot and the actors and back-stage crew successfully attempted to create the atmosphere of a 19th century theater. Ta Mr. Faustman, director, and all others cannected with the play, congratulations an a job well

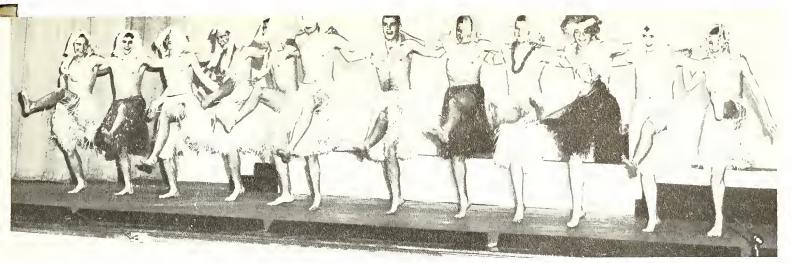

Marlene Ryskamp, Penny Shenefield.

The 1962 Variety Show was bigger and better than ever before. The theme, "Music In Calor," was carried aut very effectively through the dramatic use of different calored lights on the various acts. These acts appealed to a wide range of interests in that they included everything from three chorus lines, to gymnastics, to modern dance, to piano solos. Because each person in the audience could find some act suited to his own taste, the show was greatly enjoyed by all.
